

Troy Council Work Meeting
Council Chambers
October 16, 2014
6:30 pm

The meeting came to order at 6:30 pm. Present: Mayor Darren Coldwell, Council: Joe Arts, Crystal Denton, Kimberly Rowse, City Attorney Heather McDougall; and City Clerk Tracy Rebo. Councilman Dallas Carr unexcused absent.

GUESTS: None.

PUBLIC COMMENTS: None.

GROWTH POLICY: Mayor Coldwell explained what needed to be done including a map of the growth policy minimized. Kimberly Rowse would like to have the Mobile Home Ordinance reviewed. Rebo will follow up by emailing the Ordinance to all Council members and Mayor.

RESOLUTION No 687: SPRINKLING AND OILING- City Attorney Heather McDougall advised that the ordinance is supposed to be printed and published. Coldwell explained the need to do that. Rebo was advised to include the new information and Council to pass it as is. Discussion followed. Heather McDougall will research the legality.

PUBLIC COMMENTS: Rowse questioned the safety meetings that are required in the union contract; are they being done and how is it being documented. Coldwell explained how it was being documented assured her that the meetings are being done. Rowse also expressed concerns about the noise ordinance. She would like to see if something can be done about the train whistle, church bells, etc.

ADJOURN: Meeting adjourned at 7:08 p.m.

Darren Coldwell, Mayor

ATTEST:

Tracy Rebo, City Clerk